Vivani chocolates were first introduced at the BioFach 2000 (the world's largest organic trade fair), and chocolate enthusiasts have celebrated them ever since. Our range of chococolates are produced in the family factory of Ludwig Weinrich and marketed by there subsidiary EcoFinia GmbH. The Weinrich family enjoys over a century of knowledge and experience in producing the finest chocolate creations. In the spirit of this traditional craftsmanship, the Vivani product range was developed. By using only the finest organically grown ingredients, refined recipes, detailed knowledge, modern production equipment, and strict quality control, Vivani always guarantees top quality products.

VIVANI Premium quality chocolate is made with the finest ingredients:

- ✓ Top quality cocoa beans
- ✓ The vanilla we use is real bourbon vanilla
- ✓ 100% organic - all the ingredients we use are organically grown and certified
- ✓ High cocoa content in each variety
- ✓ We do not use genetically engineered ingredients
- ✓ Our dark chocolates are made without the use of soy lecithin

VIVANI chocolate lovers invest in the future because of the enormous agricultural and social benefits:

- ✓ Preservation of bio-diversity and natural ecosystems including water quality.
- ✓ Promotion of sustainable soil fertility and plant growth.
- ✓ By purchasing ingredients directly from small-scale farmers, they retain a greater share of the rewards of their labor.
